Macro Update:

High interest of savings tools takes toll on bonds

High interest rates on the national savings schemes are taking a toll on the transactions of treasury bills and bonds in the secondary market, Bangladesh Bank (BB) officials said. Turnover that includes purchase and sale of treasury bills and bonds in the secondary market declined to Tk 1,122 crore in May this year from Tk 1,786 crore in April, BB data shows. The market saw a turnover of Tk 2,635 crore in March and Tk 5,389 crore in February. Central bank officials said transactions may fall further unless the government adjusts interest rates of savings tools with the other market rates. The government is borrowing heavily through savings tools that offer interest rates of 11.04 percent to 11.76 percent. On the other hand, the borrowing cost stands between 2.84 percent and 7.13 percent through treasury bills and bonds.

BD may slip into 'debt crisis' shortly

Cost of funds of the Non-Bank Financial Institutions (NBFIs) increased marginally in April this year, according to the latest statistics of Bangladesh. The Cost of Funds Index (CoFI) of the NBFIs stood at 7.63 points in April which was 7.53 points in March this year. According to the central bank, cost of funds is the weighted average interest rate of the interest-bearing liabilities of a non-bank financial institution. CoFI reflects the weighted average interest rate reported for a given month by the non bank financial institutions. It also serves as the reference rate for pricing the variable interest loan products.
