Macro Update:

Private credit growth on downward slope

Private sector credit growth remained slow in October as bankers lent cautiously ahead of polls. In October, credit growth stood at 14.7%, which is the same as in the previous month, according to data from the central bank.

Little impact on loan rescheduling

Bankers' hopes of making substantial loan recovery in the lead up to the polls did not come about as many sharp-witted election candidates rescheduled their loans earlier in the year to keep their nomination unproblematic.
