Weekly Observation

Index started to enter a correction phase with ~138 points fall

This week index lost ~137.9 points. Among five of the trading days of this week, three days closed red with combined fall of ~154 points. The other two days saw a combined gain of ~16 points. It is suspected that the index has entered into a correction phase after a prolonged period of gaining trend. Looking at the large cap sectors, only Telecommunication sector registered gain of 2.08%. Average daily turnover increased by 0.8% comparing to previous week. Meanwhile, Average Trade Volume also decreased by 7.7% and total number of trades saw 19.5% increase.

Among the major economic updates, the garment exporters' profitability has hit a rock-bottom thanks to the continued downward price pressure by the international retailers amid rising production costs. Online payment system PayPal will start its journey in Bangladesh from Oct 19, ending a long wait of the country's freelancers and ICT entrepreneurs. Export receipts came crashing down in the month of September on the back of lower shipments of garment products, after registering a record high in the previous month. However, the country's export earnings shot up to $8.66 billion in the first quarter of the current fiscal year, a 7.23% up compared to $8.07 billion of the corresponding period last year. As of June this year, the amount of default loans stood at Tk 74,148 crore.

Top gaining stocks of the week were STYLECRAFT (+64.20%), METROSPIN (+26.25%), and SINOBANGLA (+17.57%). Conversely, top losing stocks were AAMRANET (-20.35%), SIMTEX (-15.72%) and SHEPHERD (-14.21%). LANKABAFIN topped the weekly turnover list UTTARABANK, ISLAMIBANK, BRACBANK, EXIMBANK, and AAMRANET.
